

The Food Heritage Foundation

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Nutrition Consultant

The Food Heritage Foundation (FHF) is a non-profit organization that strongly believes in local food heritage being a potent tool for economic development. The FHF aims to revive traditional cuisine and local produce and promotes the livelihoods of rural producers and processors through rural-urban linkages. FHF has been implementing capacity building projects throughout Lebanon promoting the local food system, supporting the livelihoods of small-scale farmers/producers, and fostering sustainability.

FHF is currently implementing a project aiming at fostering food security while promoting resilience and adaptation capacities of vulnerable small and medium-sized agricultural enterprises. The project is implemented by FHF in partnership with GIZ and is commissioned by BMZ.

Within this project, FHF is seeking to recruit a Nutrition Consultant with knowledge in Lebanese traditional food and mouneh products, who shall generate nutrition labels for a selection of food products created and processed by the project's beneficiaries.

Scope of Work

The Nutrition Consultant will be primarily responsible of the following activities:

- Develop Nutrition Labels to a total of 80 products, including:
  - List of ingredients
  - Nutrition facts (Serving size, Energy, Macronutrients and Micronutrients)
  - Allergens
- Coordinate with the outreach officers and project's coordinator to ensure the integrity of the provided recipes and needed information for the labels.
- The duration of the consultancy is from July 15 to Sept. 15, 2023

Essential Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor degree in Nutrition & Dietetics.
- Proven previous experience in working on Lebanese traditional foods, mouneh products and common food allergens.
- Demonstrated experience in nutrition labelling and nutrition facts calculations.
- Good reporting skills.

- Excellent knowledge of Arabic and English languages
